

Teresa Nickell

Hope Beyond Walls

Bringing a Message of Hope and Freedom to the Incarcerated

About Teresa

Teresa Nickell delivers a message of hope and the promise of a better life to her audiences. A national speaker and published author, Teresa shares the secret of her own life transformation from one of drugs, homelessness, and incarceration to one of successful leadership as the owner and president of a multi-million-dollar operation.

Where Teresa Speaks

Published author of The Girl in My Wallet and National Speaker for Prison Fellowship, she is available as a guest speaker on radio and television, Teresa motivates, educates and inspires at women's conferences, churches, and prisons as a. Some of her speaking audiences include Seattle Union Gospel Mission women's programs, public events hosted by J. Jill stores, Seattle Revival Center, and Chapel Hill Church.

Potential Speaking Topics

Teresa speaks about addiction/recovery, homelessness, incarceration, business ownership, and the impacts of negative inner dialog. She is available to discuss writing an autobiography, leading discussion groups, volunteer coaching (encouraging the team to thrive in their specific gifting).

Testimonials

"Teresa captivated her audience as well as spoke right into their situation. You could hear a pin drop! She has the ability to read her audience and motivate them. She is professional, timely, and prepared." - Camille Smith, Coffee Creek Correctional Facility, Wilsonville,

"Teresa skillfully articulated her story with poise, grace, and confidence. There were timely moments of pause, which caused one to go deep and ponder what was revealed. Her delivery and choice of words painted a vivid picture on the canvas of the imagination of the audience." - Abigail Edwards, Seattle Revival Center, Seattle, WA

About Teresa's book

"Nickell tells the story of her long road through addiction and abuse in this inspirational debut memoir... Her prose is consistently candid and gritty... Nickell speaks of God often, but she also discusses the psychological work that she put in to improve and forgive herself, making this a useful book for both religious and secular readers."

- Kirkus Reviews

Contact Info

Teresa Nickell, Nickell, Inc

P.O. Box 558, Maple Valley, WA 98038

Website: Nickellinc.com ♦ Email: tnickell253@gmail.com